Two Shows 11am & 1pm
Perfect for Kids K-6th - All Seats $10.00

The Town That Fought Hate is based upon Janice Cohn's award-winning children's book, The Christmas Menorahs: How a Town Fought Hate. While The Town that Fought Hate is first and foremost great entertainment for young and old, it also gently imparts some timeless life lessons including the importance of standing up to bullies and haters, the power of community and the power of each of us – including children – to make a difference.
